

IFFCO, AMUL, KRIBHCO, ULCCS make Indian Cooperative Movement Proud; Letters of Appreciation from NCUI

Four Indian Cooperative organizations – IFFCO, AMUL, KRIBHCO and Uralungul Labour Contract Cooperative Society have made the Indian Cooperative Movement proud as they have gained outstanding rankings according to the latest World Cooperative Monitor 2020 published by ICA. IFFCO has emerged number one among top 300 cooperatives in its category in the world, the ranking which is based on the ratio of turnover over Gross Domestic Product (GDP) per capita. Besides IFFCO, World Cooperative Monitor Report 2020 published by ICA has named GCMMF popularly known by the brand name AMUL in the second rank among top 300 cooperatives in the world, according to the ranking based on the ratio of turnover over Gross Domestic Product (GDP) per capita. In the list of World Cooperative Monitor Report published by ICA, the second largest fertilizer cooperative – KRIBHCO has been ranked at sixth position in the list of sector rankings in the Agriculture and Food Industries section. In the Industry and Utilities category, Uralungul Labour Contract Cooperative Society (ULCCS) has been ranked at second position in the list of sector rankings in the Industry and Utilities category, based on the ratio of turnover over GDP per capita.

NCUI President Dileep Sanghani has issued Letters of Appreciation to the Chairmen/MDs of the organizations as mentioned above. The entire text of the letters is reproduced here;
